About The Event

New California State will be reading three documents on the California state capitol steps as a “Public Pronouncement” of intent to appeal to the United State Congress to create a compact between the Union of States known as the United States of America and the Great State of New California.

“Affirmation, Declaration, Proclamation”

The first document read will be the Affirmation to the Union, followed by the New California State Declaration of Independence and then Proclamation of Statehood.

Event Location(s)

Join the Patriots of the New California State Movement as they make New California State the 51st State of the Union of States known as the United States of America.

New California is a new state in development exercising its Constitutional Right to form from the State of California as codified under Article IV Sections 3 and 4 of the United States Constitution of the United States Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights,
